

Accessible Community Act Project Plan

Project Plan
Title:	Emergency preparedness education for the medically fragile	Contact:	Tanda McMillin Depart. of Emergency Management (360) 385-9368 tmcmillin@co.jefferson.wa.us
Project Description: Develop and distribute emergency preparedness planning information for the medically fragile in Jefferson County
Benefits:	Emergency preparedness can save lives especially for those with function and access needs where planning and a support network is critical.
Objectives:	By December 2015, develop, reproduction and distribute at least 2,000 Emergency Preparedness for the Medically Fragile trifold brochures to consumers and support agencies in Jefferson County.
Deliverables:	By June 2015, develop the Emergency Preparedness for the Medically Fragile trifold brochures. By September 2015, print 5000 black & white Tri-fold copies for a cost of 411.70 with tax (for camera ready, printed black on both sides and cut) by SOS in Port Townsend. By December 2015, distribute 2,000 or more brochures to consumers and support agencies in Jefferson County. Plus Per your request, Purchase was through Office Depot: Catalog item # 447534 Holder, Leaflet, Lit., Clear - $1.21 each
Success Criteria:	Distribution of 2,000 or more Emergency Preparedness for the Medically Fragile trifold brochures by December 2015
Resources Required:	Funds needed for the reproduction of 5,000 more Emergency Preparedness for the Medically Fragile trifold brochures and the purchase of 6 or more acrylic trifold brochure holders (literature holders) to display brochures at key support agencies in Jefferson County.
Potential Partners:	Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management Jefferson County Public Health Jefferson County Council of the Blind Disability Awareness Starts Here (DASH) Hearing Loss Association Olympic Area Agency on Aging
Potential Concerns	None at this time. Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management to take lead role in development and distribution (with support agencies) of the Emergency Preparedness for the Medically Fragile trifold brochures. Assistance needed for the reproduction and acrylic trifold brochure holder costs.
Project Group Members:	Jefferson County Depart. of Emergency Management Jefferson County Council of the Blind Jefferson County Public Health Disability Awareness Starts Here (DASH)	Outside Partner Representatives:	None at this time

Accessible Community Act Project Plan

	Hearing Loss Association Olympic Area Agency on Aging)
--	---	--	--